

QUEENS COURT

This fantastic bar sits in an historic courtyard of the same name. The building, originally a wealthy cloth merchant's house, named after Queen Anne, dates from 1714. Now, we are a leading LGBTQIA+ bar in the heart of Leeds' Freedom quarter. We have been serving the gay community for over 25 years and are famous for our courtyard parties, along with Bar Fibre, during the summer months, bringing the alfresco party feel to the centre of Leeds. Queens Court is open seven days a week and brings you the friendliest team of staff, along with some of the city's best drinks deals. We pride ourselves on putting customers first and bringing you a diverse range of nights, offering the greatest party atmosphere in Leeds.
