

THREE PIGEONS

— GUILDFORD —

The Three Pigeons has stood at the top of High Street since the 18th century. Badly damaged by fire in 1916, it was rebuilt in 1918 in the Jacobean style, inspired by Oxford's high street. People say it's haunted, but don't let that stop you enjoying a wide selection of local cask ales, wines and spirits in the friendly bar or winding your way up the dark wooden spiral staircase for a great menu of pub classics.
