THE COACH HOUSE

With records dating back to the 17th century, this area has long had an affinity with coach houses – places for rest and refreshment before travellers embarked on long journeys.

And of course, today this hospitality stands just as strong, with a traditional yet premium menu offering everything from classic Sunday roasts to decadent desserts, lighter bites and more. Our drinks menu boasts a selection of wines, gins, crafted cocktails and a range of local and national craft and cask ales for our guests to sit back and enjoy.

But our hospitality spans more than just wonderful food and drinks – located in the heart of London's West End, our four-storey coach house offers a range of rooms available for private hire, making us the perfect place for your next occasion, whatever it may be.
