Part of a small batch

of hand-picked locals

THE TATTERSHALL CASTLE

The Tattershall Castle began its life in 1934 as one of three paddle steamers working the Hull to New Holland route. In 1973, after 39 years of service and over a million passengers carried – including troops during WWII – the Tattershall Castle was retired and eventually towed to its new permanent berth on London's River Thames, and the rest is history.

By day, our elegant, one-of-a-kind setting offers spectacular views over the river to enjoy with a delicious meal or one of our delightful drinks. By night, we come alive with a summertime DJ on deck, comedy shows and more.

But this isn't all we offer. If you're celebrating a special occasion, Tattershall Castle is the ideal host for events to suit everyone's tastes. Moored on the Thames with stunning views of the London Eye, Big Ben and the city skyline, our venue provides a truly unforgettable backdrop for any gathering. With a range of beautiful private-hire spaces available to book, we can bring you private dining experiences, summer deck parties, birthday get-togethers and so much more.
