Come take on your own private house party.

This best-kept-secret is a hidden gem, bringing the throwback '90s house party vibes into the 21st century. With a private entrance, bar and toilets and an overflow into the garden, there's no better place to keep your own unique bash totally private and a whole lot legendary!

THE EXTRA BITS

Not every party needs to be a stand-up affair. We've got seats all over the place, so if you prefer to sit back and kick back with a game, a drink or just some sweet tunes, you and your party can do just that.

Worried about the Great British weather? If your party's using the garden for a little fresh air, there are plenty of covered spots to hang out, 'cause we'll never let the weather dampen the mood.

Rules? The only rules here are Rita's rules, and those are to grab some drinks, make some memories and have some fun in your fave spot in town.
